

Educational Testing Service and Habitat for Humanity-Trenton Area recently broke ground on the new ETS House project. The development will create a new home for the partner family, Saul and Silvia Landa, and their two-year-old son, Saul, Jr. Through the ETS Employees' Community Action Fund, more than 900 ETS employees contributed $117,000 to fund the cost of the new home. In addition, they and their families will contribute to the labor needed to build the house. Construction on the ETS House project will commence immediately and continue through December. Pictured are Mercer County Freeholder Pat Colavita, at right, presenting ETS President and CEO Kurt Landgraf and ETS Vice President Eleanor Horne with a "Certificate of Honor" for contributions to the local community.

The Princeton-based Eden Family of Services recently held its 21st Annual white-tie fundraiser, Eden Dreams and raised $100,000 for the individuals with autism whom they serve.
